Of course, the change came in irregular fashion. Ball players usually do not select their manager, but if their choice proves a wise one, as many predict

FACTS FOR THE FANS

President C. H. Williams of the Spokane club is with the team on this trip and will remain here during the week. He was in Boise a few days ago and says there is little question now but Boise will hang to its club during the rest of the season. "A few men were inclined to give up," he says, "but the majority of the business men of the town are back of the team and will see it through."

It is understood the Washington club of the American league, with a view to trengthening up, has cast a longing look it Jack Holland, the good first baseman of the Spokane club.

Carney has passed the century hitting mark. He got his 100th safe swat of the season at Butte last Sunday. Reilly said yesterday, when asked about the story that Hanlon of Brooklyn was after Carney, that Hanlon would have to wait unity that Hanlon would have to wait unity the story that Hanlon would have to wait unity that the story this same than the story that t Eugene "Rasty" Wright, the high-priced twirler of the Boise team, has been suspended according to reports that reached Salt Lake yesterday. Wright's behavior has not been altogether lovely, it is said, and in connection with his suspension he was fined to the extent of what was coming to him.

Reilly released Pitcher Drinkwater in Butte. This leaves the Indians with but three regular pitchers, Danmaun, Hogs and Forsythe, but Carney and Howlett can do their turn on the slab in an
